ANNUAL FOOTBALL PICNIC SET JULY 20

Mark your calendars. More info will be coming shortly. Coach Mangino will party with TJC and the TJC band Wednesday, July 20, 2005 at the Ramada Inn, 6th & I-70. The buffet will feature 2 BBQ meats (perhaps wildcat and tiger, but probably not), baked beans, coleslaw, potato salad, brownie, water and tea. Members will pay $15/person, $10 for kids under 10. Non-TJC Members will pay $18/person, $13 for kids under 10. Football info will be available, and TJC will raffle prizes.

IMMORTALITY RIGHT NEXT TO PHOG!

Why spring big bucks for a tombstone when you can have your name etched in granite outside Allen Fieldhouse. 3,600 granite pavers will surround the Phog Allen statue and bear the names of donors. $350 gets you a 6-inch paver, and $600 gets you a 12-inch stone.

Donations are tax-deductible, and orders must be received by Oct. 1. You can order online at: http://www.collegesports.com/auto\_pdf/p\_hotos/s\_chools/kan/genrel/auto\_pdf/pavers

STILL FEELING A LITTLE BLUE AFTER BASKETBALL?

Console yourself with these numbers of conference titles earned in our conference (from Missouri Valley to Big 12 as it changed through the years) by the current members: Out of 99 years of conference play, KU has won or shared the championship 48 times. Next come K-State, 16; MU, 14; OU, 14; NU, 7; ISU, 5; CU, 5; and OSU, 3.

CAN'T FIND THAT RIGHT LOOK FOR GAMEDAY?

Have we got a deal for you! The KU Bookstore will be getting these hats in perhaps as early as Monday, June 13th, and will sell them for $19.95 (less 10% for Topeka Jayhawk Club members when showing your TJC card)! They have an adjustable strap in the back, as most ball caps do, and are made very well. One size fits all. What a hoot to have the stadium or fieldhouse full of these. Check their website for availability at kubookstore.com.

BEAKS & TAILS

 KU Athletic Director Lew Perkins has been elected to the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Board of Trustees. The Naismith Hall is located in Springfield, Massachusetts, and KU has more inductees in the Hall than any other university.

 Lynette Woodard joins the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame this month in Knoxville, last year having been inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame.

 KU football video coordinator Lance Wright has been named the Big 12 Video Coordinator of the year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

 KU Junior Sheldon Battle, hammer, discus and shot put thrower, has been named the Mondo Midwest Outdoor Track and Field Athlete of the Year by the United States Track Coaches Association.

 A 150-year old home in Lawrence has been identified as the place where the Rock Chalk Chant was born at gatherings of the KU Chemistry Club headed by Professor E.H.S. Bailey.

 The KU Athletics budget has increased about $13million since 2003.

 Q: Is a Moon Bar any relation to a Moon Pie?

 Former KU Track Coach Bob Timmons and his wife have donated the KU Cross-Country Course on their Rim Rock Farm to KU, a gift worth approximately $500,000.

 The KU Audio Reader program is the second oldest such program in the country, providing live and recorded reading by FM radio receivers to blind and visually impaired citizens of Kansas.

Elizabeth Ahrens, Stephen Ferrell and Rachael Perry, all KU students from Topeka, received awards and scholarships in this year's KU Theatre Awards Ceremonies. Alumni honored were Broadway, film and TV actor Mandy Patinkin, New York, and Alex Graves, California, writer, director and producer of "The West Wing".

New KU faculty recently concluded their 1500 mile Wheat State Whirlwind Tour of more than 25 Kansas communities.
