A BOWL FULL OF M & M'S - Yum Yum:

Coach (M)ark (M)angino and his (m)arvelous & (m)agnificent University of Kansas football tea(m) scored a (m)omentous & (m)ighty win in their second straight bowl ga(m)e. On December 31st, in (m)ostly sunny Te(m)pe, Arizona the University of Kansas football Jayhawks outplayed and outscored the University of (M)innesota football Golden Gophers in the Insight Bowl. The stands were full of Cri(m)son [(m)agenta] & Blue to see our Jayhawks (m)angle the (m)angy Gophers. With al(m)ost all of the offense back for their senior year the 2009 football season is eagerly anticipated. With the win it also (m)arked the first ti(m)e in K.U. football history that K.U. experienced twenty (20) wins in back to back seasons.

FORE!

Well in fact it is more like six months before the next annual TJC Golf Tournament. But you can start making plans now for June 8th. Get your foresomes together and plot your strategies. It's never too early fore a little forethought!

INTO THE WOODS!

Gary Woodland that is! After a demanding series of qualifying golf tournaments, the last one held in Palm Springs and consisting of six straight days of golf. Our very own Topeka native, Gary Woodland has qualified for the 2009 PGA tour. Gary is a Shawnee Heights High School and KU graduate. The 2009 PGA season consists of 47 different tournaments, starting in Hawaii. Gary's first appearance on the pro tour will be on January 15 - 18 in the SONY Open. We have football for the Fall Season, basketball for the Winter/Spring Season and now we have golf for Spring, Summer and Autumn.

BANNER YEAR FOR TJC!

The club has purchased new banners to be displayed at various TJC events, football banquets, basketball luncheons and any other excuse we can think off to show off and promote ourselves. Look for the banners. They look SUPER!

BURMA SHAVE!

TJC would like to remind you its time to pay your dues

To most and many this is very old news

Yet there are a few

Who we may have to sue

If on paying their dues they don't come throughz.

(This is known as poetic license. Others will call just bad gramm-er)

KU/MU FOOTBALL REVISITED!

Neither rain (which there was some) nor snow (which there was a lot of) nor gloom of predicting sportswriters (fill in with your own comments) failed to stop the KU football team from: beating, smashing, trouncing, routing, the Missouri football team when they met at Arrowhead Stadium. Ye olde editor admits to wearing a groove into his hardwood floor from his pacing during the game. He also is pleased to admit to being able to jump a good three feet off of said offended floor when Todd throw the game winning pass. Both events were outstanding. The throw/catch and my ability to jump.

HAWKS & FROGS!

Praise and thanks must be given to Jeremiah's Bullfrogs Bar & Grill at 4114 SW Huntoon. (Gage Center). They have been GREAT in their working with the Topeka

Jayhawk Club in opening their doors to our HAWK WATCH parties. Insight Bowl Hawk Watch was super. They also are working with us on away basketball games. Hope to see you at a future HAWK WATCH.

DISTINGUISHED!!!!

Coach Bill Self will be recognized as The Distinguished Kansas Sports figure of the year on Friday January 30th, during Kansas Days. Individual tickets to the banquet are $40.00 or ten people can go together and buy a table for $50.00 each. ($500.00).

WOMEN & KU

On February 28th at 7:00 P.M. the KU women’s basketball team will play the University of Nebraska women’s team at Allen Field House. Tickets to the event are $2.00 per person, with free parking. The event will also pay tribute to 40 years of Women’s Athletics at KU. Let’s fill the field house and show our support and appreciation for forty wonderful years.

We will be at Fairlawn Mall on the following dates for Membership/ Gift Pickup. See the website calendar for details
